Mental Health at Christmas

No matter how or if you celebrate, it's normal to find this time of year a challenge for your mental health. You may be worried about friends and family or other things happening in the world. You are not alone. There are all sorts of reasons you might find this time of year difficult and that's OK.

If you don't feel like there's anyone you can talk to, Samaritans are here for you. Call free, day or night, on 116 123 or email jo@samaritans.org.

Staying Well This Winter

In the winter months it's common to get coughs, colds, sneezes, and sore throats. Not every illness needs a trip to the doctor, and many can be treated at home.

If you need advice, you can talk to a local pharmacist about over-the-counter medicines, and they will tell you if you need to see a doctor.

If you don't feel well and have symptoms that aren't going away, speak to your GP.

Patient Participation Group

We want to know what is going well and what we could do better at our surgery. This is why we have Patient Participation Groups (PPGs).

PPGs bring together patients and staff to discuss the range and quality of services provided by the practice. They ensure the thoughts of patients are at the centre of all decision-making.

If you would like to be involved in our PPG, please call the practice, and speak to a member of the team.

Would you recognise the signs of gambling harm?

Gambling can harm physical and mental health, damage relationships, and leave people feeling lonely and isolated. It can also cause problems with employment, education, housing, and lead to serious debt.

If you notice that you (or someone you know) is feeling stressed, anxious or isolated, or are asking about gambling a lot of the time, it could be a sign of gambling harm.
